	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The application can be DocuSigned but requires electronic consent from the Insured as well (this form can be e-signed). • After receiving the application, Standard conducts initial review of the materials provided and will reach out if additional information is needed. • If no further information is needed, underwriters will review the income and current inforce coverage to determine the maximum increase the Insured qualifies for. • When underwriting makes a decision they notify the Inforce Policy Coordinator at Truluma with the maximum benefit amount, new policy number (if applicable), and effective date. • The Insured can decide on the amount they would like to accept (between the 50% minimum and the full offer). • The policy is sent electronically to the broker and client for signatures. At this stage, if the client would like to be on automatic drafting or change their premium mode they can elect to do so via the EFT form sent with the policy. • After signatures are received, Standard will draft or request premium to place the increased benefit amount inforce. • The FPO pool is reduced based on the increase amount exercised. The premium for the FPO rider on the original base policy will remain the same until the full pool is exercised, no matter how much benefit is remaining. After the pool is exercised, the rider and associated premium is removed from the base policy. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If no further information is needed, underwriters will review the income and current inforce coverage to determine the maximum increase the Insured qualifies for. • When underwriting makes a decision they notify the Inforce Policy Coordinator at Truluma with the maximum benefit amount, 75% and 50% increase amounts, and the effective date. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ After receiving an offer, the Insured must accept between 50% and 100% to keep the BIR on their policy. If no offer is received, the rider will still renew automatically. • Once the Insured decides on the amount to issue, Standard will produce a quote based on the accepted increase and will generate an endorsement. The endorsement must be signed and returned within 30 days to place the increase inforce. • The draft of premium will occur on the policy anniversary date, or when the endorsement and authorization to draft is received (if the policy anniversary date has already passed). • The next regular increase option will occur in 3 years.
